LOANS

AMOUNT OUTSTANDING	PRICE AT WHICH ISSUED	PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST FREE FROM CANADIAN TAXES IF BONDS ARE HELD BY NON-RESIDENTS	REMARKS
$43,900,000 in February, 1920, out of an original issue of $100,000,000 which was over-subscribed but has been reduced to $43,900,000 by conversions into subsequent Canadian Internal Loans	97½	Yes	(1) Coupon bonds to bearer and coupon bonds registered as to principal in denominations of $100, $500, and $1,000; and (2) fully registered bonds (principal and interest) without coupons in denominations of $1,000, $5,000 or any authorized multiple of $5,000. Coupon and registered bonds are interchangeable without charge at the Department of Finance at Ottawa, where the books of the loan are kept. These bonds were convertible at the price of issue (97½) and accrued interest into future Internal War Loans, but this privilege has now lapsed. The principal is payable in Canadian money at the Office of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General at Ottawa or at the Office of the Assistant Receiver General at Halifax, St. John, Charlottetown, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary or Victoria. The interest is payable in Canadian money, free of exchange, at any branch of any chartered bank in Canada. This loan is exempt from all taxes, including Income Tax, imposed in pursuance of legislation enacted by the Parliament of Canada.
About $54,700,000 in February, 1920. The original issue of $100,000,000 has been reduced by conversions into subsequent Internal Loans	97½	Yes	(1) Coupon bonds to bearer and coupon bonds registered as to principal in denominations of $100, $500 and $1,000; and (2) fully registered bonds (principal and interest) without coupons in denominations of $1,000, $5,000 and any authorized multiple of $5,000. Upon payment of a fee of 25 cents for each new bond issued, fully registered bonds may be exchanged for coupon bonds of $1,000 denomination, and coupon bonds are exchangeable into fully registered bonds of authorized denominations at any time upon application to the Minister of Finance. This loan originally gave no right of conversion, but the holders were permitted, by legislative enactment in 1917, to convert at 97½ and accrued interest into subsequent Internal Loans maturing in not less than 20 years and issued for the purpose of carrying on the war. The principal and interest are payable in Canadian gold at the same offices and agencies in Canada as the First War Loan. This issue is exempt from Canadian taxes, including Income Tax.
About $92,000,000 in February, 1920. The original issue of $150,000,000 has been reduced by conversions into subsequent Internal Loans	96	Yes	The forms and denominations of the Third War Loan, the privilege of exchanging fully registered bonds for coupon bonds and vice versa upon payment of 25 cents for each new bond issued, the right of conversion at the price of issue (96 in this case), the offices and agencies in Canada where the principal and interest are payable in Canadian gold, and the exemption from Canadian taxes, including Income Tax, are the same as in the case of the Second War Loan. In addition to the offices and agencies in Canada, the principal of these bonds will be paid, upon maturity, at par in United States gold coin at the Agency of the Bank of Montreal in New York. The interest on coupon and fully registered bonds is likewise payable in United States gold coin, free of exchange, at the same agency in New York.
About $518,000,000 in February, 1920. The original issue was fixed at $150,000,000, but was largely over-subscribed	Par	Yes	(4) Coupon bonds to bearer in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000, which may be registered as to principal only; and (2) fully registered bonds (principal and interest), the interest on which is paid directly to the owner by Government cheque, in denominations of $1,000, $5,000 or any authorized multiple of $5,000. Subject to the payment of 25 cents for each new bond issued, holders of fully registered bonds without coupons have the right to convert into coupon bonds of the denomination of $1,000, and holders of coupon bonds may convert into fully registered bonds of authorized denominations without coupons, at any time, upon application to the Minister of Finance. Part payment for subscriptions to (1) any of the three maturities of this loan was permitted to holders of Dominion of Canada Debenture Stock due October 1, 1919, at par and accrued interest, and of the First War Loan bonds, due December 1, 1925, at 97½ and accrued interest; and (2) to the twenty-year bonds of this issue, due December 1, 1937, was permitted to holders of the Second War Loan bonds, due October 1, 1931, at 97½ and accrued interest, and of the Third War Loan bonds, due March 1, 1937, at 96 and accrued interest. In the event of future loans of like or longer maturity made by the Canadian Government, other than issues made abroad, the bonds of all three maturities of this loan will be accepted at par and accrued interest as the equivalent for cash for the purpose of subscription to such future issues. The offices and branches of chartered banks in Canada where the principal and interest are payable in Canadian gold are the same as in the case of the First War Loan. The bonds of this issue are "free from taxes—including any income tax—imposed in pursuance of legislation by the Parliament of Canada,"
